DAIRYING SEED CORN

CHIPPEWALLA

WM. A. BENTON WASSAIC, N. Y.

Feb. 11 1924.

Dear Dr. Robinson,

Your letter came very unexpectedly and naturally strikes a very responsive chord in our hearts.

We are greatly pleased that the boys are doing so well and hope that they will continue to merit the esteem of our Delhi friends.

We feel that their interest in Church work has been greatly encouraged and strengthened by your personal contact with them, also that our friends in Delhi are a people who cannot but promote sterling character. We consider ourselves very fortunate to have the boys among such surroundings.

Kindly accept our thanks for your great interest, for we know you are a busy man, and believe us,

Sincerely,

Wm A Benton

51 N. 39th. St., Phila., Pa.
July 1, 1933.

My dear Mr. Robinson,

It was both a surprise and a pleasure to receive your letter. I have forwarded it to Mr. Chester A. Jackson who is on the Com. to secure a minister. They are true to the Faith at Lancaster finish and I'm sure that will be one finish in your ambition.

I have never ceased to remember the joy and help of your course at the P. H. U. You were always an inspiration to me and I am glad to forward your letter and help a little. Dr. Byerly is my brother.

Cordially,
M. Mae Byerly.

Island Avenue Presbyterian Church
Island and Concordia Avenues
Rev. Charles V. Burton, Pastor
Residence, 1390 Island Avenue
Milwaukee, Wis.

Nov. 28, 1923

Rev. W.C. Robinson,

Delhi, N.Y.

Dear Brother:

Replying to your favor of the 23rd, would say that Mr. E.E. Goodwin was dismissed sometime ago by our Presbytery to the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist Conference of Wales. As far as we knew, he was in good and regular standing in our Presbytery. I do not know of any stain on his character or anything at all against him. We could not but recommend him for further work.

Very sincerely yours,

C V Burton

THIS SIDE OF CARD IS FOR ADDRESS

Rev. W. C. Robinson D. D.
Delhi,
N. Y.

Dear Dr. Robison:

I shall be glad to take Meridale Dec. 16, 23, and Hamden Dec. 30.

Very sincerely,

T. C. Boothout.